

THE MEDIEVAL ASSOCIATION OF THE MIDWEST (MAM) is an interdisciplinary association of medievalists in the Midwest founded to promote the study, criticism, research, and exchange of ideas related to all aspects of the medieval period and to articulate the specific needs of medievalists in the Midwest. The association sponsors a biannual newsletter Nuntia, an annual volume of publications (Enarratio: Publications of the Medieval Association of the Midwest), a fall conference, and annual sessions at the International Congress on Medieval Studies in Kalamazoo, Michigan, and the Midwest Modern Language Association (M/MLA) conference.

Membership is open to anyone with an interest in medieval studies. Annual dues are $25 for regular membership, $10 for graduate students and faculty emeriti, and $110 for three-year membership plus all TWELVE back-issue volumes (normally $10 each).

If you are interested in joining the Medieval Association of the Midwest, please complete this form below and mail it with your dues payment (payable to MAM) to Kristie Bixby, Fairmount College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Wichita State University, Wichita, KS 67260-0013; for information about membership and MAM subscriptions, email Kristie.bixby@wichita.edu.
